

Food Access Warehouse Assistant - Faribault

Organization: Community Action Center (CAC) is a community-based, non-profit, human services organization that provides and advocates for the basic needs of people and families throughout Rice County. Its programs create a robust safety net for low-income families and include food access, housing, employment services, clothing, emergency assistance, youth services, transportation, health care assistance, and more.

CAC provides drop-in resource centers where immediate response and support are available, and its thriving and abundant food shelves serve fresh, healthy, and culturally relevant food to thousands of households each year. CAC also administers multiple housing services spanning from emergency shelter to workforce housing, including ongoing support services with tenants. CAC's Recovery Support program helps individuals who are currently using or in recovery from substance use. Partnerships with local employers allow CAC to connect individuals to job opportunities and enhance job skills, and CAC's retail clothing store provides the entire community with access to affordable clothing.

Mission & Values: CAC's mission is to promote a healthy, caring, and just community for all people through resources, advocacy, and volunteer effort. To that end, CAC strives to be a trauma-responsive organization, providing services that embody the idea that people can adapt, heal, and even grow from traumatic experiences. Recognizing the effects that trauma has on individuals, families, and our society as a whole, CAC aims to reduce the impact of trauma on the lives that the organization touches by helping individuals to feel safe, connected and in control—over the course of many interpersonal interactions and in a variety of welcoming settings. Responding to the community in a trauma-responsive way is critical to the success of this position and to the mission of the CAC.

CAC's resources and staff are integral parts of their communities and include partnerships with schools, businesses, faith communities, and other organizations. This extensive local network allows CAC to pursue community-engaged solutions, prioritize partnerships, and collaborate with thousands of volunteers. Currently, we are looking for a Food Access Warehouse Assistant to help support the community-responsive work of CAC.

Job Title: Food Access Warehouse Assistant

Reports to: Food Access Site Manager

Primary Location: Faribault

FLSA Status: Hourly, non-exempt

Compensation: $18-20/hr

Hour Status: 20 hours, including occasional evenings. Must be available during main receiving times on Monday and Wednesday mornings.

Job Summary: The Food Access Warehouse Assistant is a physical, logistical role supporting CAC's food access work. The Warehouse Assistant will be responsible for receiving deliveries, tracking inventory, stocking shelves, and providing other logistical support in close collaboration with other members of the Food Access Team.

Primary Job Responsibilities:

- Warehouse Logistics:
 - Collaborate closely with the Food Access Team, volunteers, and other CAC staff to ensure that deliveries are smooth, efficient, and safe
 - Maintain a clean and organized warehouse space
 - Track inventory and assist with stock replenishment

Community Action Center

- Identify opportunities to improve the organization, safety, and efficiency of the warehouse
- Food Program Support:
 - Assist in general food shelf operations, data collection, inventory, and maintenance
 - Support the home delivery program, food rescue and mobile distributions, using the CAC cargo van as needed
 - Process and stock incoming food rescue and other donated food for distribution
 - Comply with federal regulations set forth by TEFAP, food recalls, safe food handling and civil rights training, follow all safety procedures and communicate appropriately

General Responsibilities:

- Demonstrate commitment to the agency's mission: "To promote a healthy, caring and just community for all people through resources, advocacy and volunteer effort."
- Employ trauma-responsive, person-centered care practices to create a safe and healing space, build relationships, foster agency and invest in the long-term wellbeing of participants
- Utilize crisis intervention and conflict resolution skills to support individuals and families in need
- Follow all mandated reporting laws for vulnerable adults as well as child abuse and neglect
- Attend and actively participate in regularly scheduled organization and team meetings and trainings

Work Environment and Physical Demands:

- This position is based in a blended warehouse/retail environment with exposure to computers, copiers, scanners and printers, scales, pallet jacks, heavy loads, and minimal noise level
- This is a physical role. While performing the duties of this job the employee is regularly required to walk, stand, climb stairs, bend, kneel, use hands to write, use computers and lift up to 40 lbs. and is expected to practice safe lifting techniques and conform to safe warehouse practices.

Qualifications: CAC is committed to finding the right person for the position. Ideal candidates will possess many of the following qualities:

Required qualities:
